Lead Instructor

After 20 years in law enforcement Ronald "Doc" Davis retired from the Boynton Beach Police Department as a sergeant in charge of their crime prevention unit. Additionally, he served as the team commander for both the hostage negotiation and critical incident stress management teams. Doc obtained his master's degree in psychology from Nova Southeastern University, and is currently finishing his doctorate in psychology, with a focus on hostage negotiation, crisis intervention, and stress. He has served as an adjunct psychology professor for the past four years, and currently teaches hostage negotiation and crisis intervention at several training sites around the state of Florida.
