

ELEMENTS FOR A SUCCESSFUL INTERVIEW

The goal of this tuition-free 16-hour Multijurisdictional Counterdrug Taskforce Training course is to provide the military and law enforcement investigator with the knowledge and skills to develop and conduct successful information-gathering for all aspects of transnational criminal investigations. The concepts of interviewing and interrogation come packaged in many different forms and under many different names in today's investigative environment. This class brings these elements to the forefront and when applied interactively with ongoing experience, it will enable the participants to greatly increase their success rate for obtaining information related to terrorism, transnational drug operations and counter terrorism financial investigations.

Course topics include:

- Conducting Police Interviews
- Creating the Optimal Interview Environment
- Interrogations: the Human Response
- Interview Guidelines
- Verbal Analysis: Listening for Clues
- Verbal Content: Encoding / Decoding
- Behavioral Analysis: Verbal / Non-verbal
- Defense Proof Interrogations

February 26-27, 2019

Daily: 8 a.m. - 5 p.m.

St. Petersburg College
Allstate Center

This tuition-free course is provided by:

Mr. Wagner was a member of the Metropolitan Police Department, Washington, DC and has 38 years of experience as a Criminal Investigator and Investigative Supervisor. He has had extensive involvement in all areas of criminal investigations with a specialty in violent crimes. Mr. Wagner is a nationally recognized trainer in criminal investigations, case management and defense-proofing techniques for trial presentation. Mr. Wagner has been qualified as an expert on criminal investigations procedures in both federal and local courts throughout his lengthy career. From 1991 to 2001, in addition to his investigative responsibilities, he was a faculty member and on the Board of Advisors for the Criminal Justice division at the Prince Charles's Community College, Largo, Maryland. Mr. Wagner developed and assisted in the implementation of the college A.A. degree program for Forensic Science. He is the past Deputy Director of Criminal Investigations Training at the Prince George's Municipal Police Academy and has provided seminars nationally at both the local and federal level. Mr. Wagner's instructional style is unmatched in today's law enforcement training environment and has been developed through years of interaction with the working police officer. His understanding of violent offenders, pattern offences, and criminal behavior have been time proven investigative innovators that have lead police departments and federal agencies to enhance their investigative ability, increase arrest and case clearance rates, and show a direct rise in their conviction rates. Mr. Wagner currently holds certification in both Law Enforcement Training and Instructor Development.

Registration Link:

http://cpsireg.spcollege.edu/og_register.aspx?23388

Hotel information here

Location: St. Petersburg College Allstate Center
3200 34th St. S., St. Petersburg, FL 33711

Questions? Walker.gail@spcollege.edu 727-344-8020

Casual clothing is recommended. Shorts, tank tops, offensive T-shirts are unacceptable. Law enforcement personnel not in uniform that are carrying exposed firearms must prominently display agency ID and/or badge at all times while on college property. No tobacco use allowed on college property.

The Board of Trustees of St. Petersburg College affirms its equal opportunity policy in accordance with the provisions of the Florida Educational Equity Act and all other relevant state and federal laws, rules and regulations. The college will not discriminate on the basis of race, color, ethnicity, religion, sex, age, national origin, marital status, pregnancy, sexual orientation, gender identity, genetic information, or against any qualified individual with disabilities in its employment practices or in the admission and treatment of students. Recognizing that sexual harassment constitutes discrimination on the basis of sex and violates this Rule, the college will not tolerate such conduct. Should you experience such behavior, please contact Pamela Smith, the director of EA/EO/Title IX Coordinator at 727-341-3261; by mail at P.O. Box 13489, St. Petersburg, FL 33733-3489; or by email at ea_eo_director@spcollege.edu.