

Spanish for Criminal Justice Professionals #1165

This is an introduction course to occupational Spanish. This course will enhance the student's ability to relate and recall phrases and responses. At the end of this course, students will be able to establish a basic line of communication, a safe environment and identify the need for the assistance of a Spanish translator while in the performance of duties. This course will provide non-Spanish speaking criminal justice professionals with the basic Spanish language skills needed to communicate.

Students must pass an end-of-course examination with a minimum score of 80%.

Lead Instructor

Rafael Navarro brings more than 20 years of experience in community policing. Rafael retired from the U.S. Army after serving 21 years as a military police officer. Rafael is a retired Sergeant from the Pinellas County Sheriff's Office where he worked in the Human Resources Division and in the Training Section as a supervisor (Sergeant) for over 7 years, overseeing and providing in-service training to agency personnel. Rafael participated in the USAID-funded "Alcance Positivo" program in Panama through City Links Partnership. He travelled numerous times to Panama to provide Community Policing training and technical assistance to various police agencies and members of municipal crime and violence prevention committees. Rafael is an adjunct instructor for St. Petersburg College and for the past several years Rafael has taught "Introduction to Community Policing" in Panama and El Salvador.
